METHODS WHICH MIGHT BE USED TO MAINTAIN AND STRENGTHEN INTERNATIONAL PEACE AND SECURITY IN ACCORDANCE WITH THE PURPOSES AND PRINCIPLES OF THE CHARTER

Additional communications from Governments concerning resolution 503 (VI) adopted by the General Assembly on 12 January 1952

Excerpt from communication of the Government of the Federal Republic of Germany, dated 10 March 1952:

The Government of the Federal Republic of Germany will carefully examine the General Assembly's resolution of 12 January 1952 ... concerning proposals for the maintenance of world peace and world security in accordance with the Purposes and Principles of the Charter, as well as the report of the Collective Measures Committee, enclosed pursuant to paragraph 7 of this resolution. The Government of the Federal Republic of Germany would appreciate it if it could be kept informed of the work of the United Nations in this field as far as it concerns non-Member States.

Bonn, 10 March 1952

Excerpt from communication of the Minister for Foreign Affairs of Japan, dated 1 May 1952:

The Minister for Foreign Affairs wishes to inform the Secretary-General that the Japanese Government has taken note of the above-mentioned report and will consider, in the light of future circumstances, ways and means, in the economic field as well as in other fields, whereby it could contribute most effectively to collective measures undertaken by the United Nations in accordance with the Purposes and Principles of the Charter.
